

Environmental preservation Project

Thai Caprolactam Public Company Limited (TCL) have implemented and operated the incinerator in early 2007 by using the waste fuel and generates steam for supply in production process. The project can reduce overall steam consumption by approximately 20%.

